SCOUTERS-IN-TRAINING (S.I.T.)

Scouters-in-Training and Activity Leaders must be registered with Scouts Canada, either with the section to which they belong as youth members or the section with which they are working.

Requirements

- 16-17 years old
- Willing to live by Scouts Canada's principles
- Willing to participate in training/development programs for Scouters-in-Training
- Often members of a Venturer or Rover section

Duties

- Usually involved in leading games, songs, stories
- Help with crafts, outdoor activities
- Often work with smaller groups of youth members
- Help with administrative duties (e.g. dues, attendance)
- Involved in program planning

Uniform

Scouters-in-Training may wear the uniform of the section to which they belong as youth members, or they may wear the adult uniform. (See B.P.&P., Section 8000, Uniforms and Insignia, for more information about uniforms.)

Scouters-in-Training are a valuable source of leadership. They are our future leaders.

ACTIVITY LEADERS

Requirements

- 14 to 15 year-olds
- Have good character
- Willing to live by Scouts Canada's Principles
- Willing to take training/development for their age group

Duties

- Work with other leaders to help with games, songs, stories, crafts, etc.
- Help the youth members in small groups or on an individual basis
- May help with some administrative duties
- Involved in program planning

Uniform

Activity Leaders may wear the uniform of the section to which they belong as youth members, or they may wear the adult uniform. (See B.P.&P., Section 8000, Uniforms and Insignia, for more information about uniforms.)

Although Scouters-in-Training and Activity Leader play valuable roles, they are never left in charge without a registered adult leader or assistant leader in attendance.
